Dear Sir or Madam:

On January 23, 2007 we wrote you requesting information concerning the Form 1023 you filed requesting exemption from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Your response was due on February 13, 2007. To date we have not received the information we requested.

If we do not receive the information requested by the response due date shown in the heading of this letter, we will assume you do not want us to consider the matter further and will close your case. In that event, as required by Code section 6104(c), we will notify the appropriate state officials that, based on the information we have, we cannot recognize you as an organization of the kind described in Code section 501(c)(3). As a result, the Internal Revenue Service will treat your organization as a taxable entity. If we receive the information after the response due date, we may ask you to send us a new Form 1023.

In addition, if you do not provide the requested information in a timely manner, we will consider that you have not taken all reasonable steps to secure the determination you requested. Under Code section 7428(b)(2), if you fail to take all reasonable steps in a timely manner to secure the determination requested it may be considered a failure to exhaust administrative remedies available to you within the Service. Therefore, you may lose your rights to a declaratory judgment under Code section 7428.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Richard K. Dolfi
